- (d) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company that is capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with its commercial and/or regulatory objectives subject to Applicable Laws.
- (e) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the aforesaid objects.

Powers of the Company

- (2) Subject to Applicable Laws, the Company shall be capable of exercising all the functions of a body corporate and have full rights, powers and privileges to attain or pursue the aforesaid objects.

SHAREClass of shares

- 7. Shares in the original or any increased capital may be divided into several classes and there may be attached thereto respectively any preferential, deferred or other special rights, privileges, conditions or restrictions as to dividends, capital, voting rights or otherwise.

Alteration of share capital

- 8. Subject always to the provisions in this Constitution and Applicable Laws, the Company shall have power to increase or reduce the capital, to consolidate or subdivide all or any of its share capital, the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each subdivided share and to issue all or any part of the original or any additional capital as fully paid or partly paid shares, and with any special or preferential rights, privileges or subject to any special terms or conditions and either with or without any special designation, and also from time to time to alter, modify, commute, abrogate or deal with any such rights, privileges, terms, conditions or designations in accordance with the Constitution for the time being of the Company.

Company No.5067*MShare capital

9. The Company shall have power to issue shares as may be permitted under and in accordance with Applicable Laws.
10. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares but subject to Applicable Laws and this Constitution, shares in the Company may be issued by the Board and any such shares may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital, or otherwise as the Board, subject to any ordinary resolution of the Company, may determine.

Allotment of shares

11. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares, and subject to the provisions of this Constitution and Applicable Laws and to the provisions of any resolution of the Company, shares in the Company may be issued by the Board, who may allot, or otherwise dispose of such shares to such persons at such price, on such terms and conditions, with such preferred, deferred or other special rights, and subject to such restrictions and at such times as the Board may determine but the Board in making any issue of shares shall comply with the following conditions:
 - (a) in the case of shares, other than ordinary shares, no special rights shall be attached until the same have been expressed in this Constitution and in the resolution creating the same;
 - (b) no issue of shares shall be made which will have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in the Company to any person, company or syndicate without the prior approval of the Members of the Company in a meeting of Members;
 - (c) every issue of shares or other convertible securities to Directors of the Company shall be approved by the Members in meeting of Members and no Directors shall participate in such issue of shares or other convertible securities unless:
 - (i) the Members in meeting of Members have approved of the specific allotment to be made to such Directors; and
 - (ii) he holds office in the Company in an executive capacity PROVIDED ALWAYS that a Director not holding office in an executive capacity may so participate in an issue of shares pursuant to a public issue or public offer.

Issue of new shares to Members

12. Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the Company in a meeting of Members, all new shares or other convertible securities shall, before issue, be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the Company of the meetings of Members in proportion as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares or securities to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares or securities offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and, after the expiration of that time or on receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares or securities offered, the Board may dispose those shares or securities in such manner as it thinks most beneficial to the Company. The Board may likewise also dispose any new shares or security which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares or security bear to shares or securities held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares or securities) cannot, in the opinion of the Board, be conveniently offered under this Constitution.

Company No.5067*M

Shares buy back

13. (1) Subject to and in accordance with Applicable Laws, the Company shall be entitled at any time and from time to time and on any terms it deems fit, with the approval of the Members by way of an ordinary resolution, to purchase and/or acquire its own shares.
- (2) Any shares in the Company so purchased by the Company shall be dealt with in accordance with Applicable Laws.

Rights of preference shareholders

14. Subject to the Applicable Laws, any preference shares may with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, be issued on the terms that they are or at the option of the Company are liable to be redeemed and the Company shall not, unless with the consent of existing preference shareholders at a class meeting, issue preference shares ranking in priority over preference shares already issued, but may issue preference shares ranking equally therewith.
15. The Company shall have power to issue preference shares carrying a right to redemption out of profits or liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company and the Board may, subject to the provisions of Applicable Laws, redeem such shares on such terms and in such manner as it may think fit.
16. (1) Preference shareholders shall have the same rights as ordinary shareholders as regards receiving notices, reports and audited financial statements and attending meetings of Members of the Company, unless otherwise specified in the terms of issue of the preference shares.
- (2) The holder of a preference share shall be entitled to a right to vote in each of the following circumstances:
 - (a) when the dividend or part of the dividend on the share is in arrears for more than six (6) months;
 - (b) on a proposal to reduce the Company's share capital;
 - (c) on a proposal for the disposal of the whole of the Company's property, business and undertaking;
 - (d) on a proposal that affects rights attached to the share;
 - (e) on a proposal to wind up the Company; and
 - (f) during the winding-up of the Company.

Company No.5067*MRepayment of preference capital

17. Notwithstanding the provisions in this Constitution, the repayment of preference share capital other than redeemable preference shares or any alteration of preference shareholders' rights, shall only be made pursuant to a special resolution of the preference shareholders concerned PROVIDED ALWAYS that where the necessary majority for such a special resolution is not obtained at the meeting, consent in writing obtained from the holders of seventy-five per centum (75%) of the preference shares concerned within two (2) months of the meeting, shall be as valid and effectual as a special resolution carried at the meeting.

Modification of class rights

18. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of seventy-five per centum (75%) of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of Members of the holders of the shares of that class. To every such separate meetings of Members the provisions of this Constitution relating to meetings of Members shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two (2) persons at least holding or representing by proxy, one-third of the issued shares of the class, and that any holders of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll. To every such special resolution the provisions of Section 292 of the Act shall apply with such adaptations as are necessary.

Ranking of class rights

19. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further share ranking as regards participations in the profits or assets of the Company in some or in all respects pari passu therewith.

Commission on subscriptions of shares

20. The Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by the Act, provided that the rate per cent or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by the Act and the commission shall not exceed the rate of ten per cent (10%) of the price at which the shares in respect whereof the same is paid are issued or an amount equal to ten per cent (10%) of that price (as the case may be). Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The Company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

Interest on share capital during construction

21. Where any shares are issued for the purpose of raising money to defray the expenses of the construction of any works or buildings or the provisions of any plant which cannot be made profitable for a long period the Company may pay interest or returns on the amount of such share capital as is for the time being paid up for the period and subject to the conditions and restriction mentioned in Section 130 of the Act and may charge the same to capital as part of the cost of construction of the works or buildings or the provisions of the plant.

Company No.5067*MTrust not to be recognised

22. Except as required by Applicable Laws, and subject to the provisions of this Constitution, no person, shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future, or partial interest in any share or unit of share or (except only as by this Constitution or by Applicable Laws otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

CERTIFICATECertificates

23. (1) Subject to the Applicable Laws:
- (a) Where any new shares (except for the shares which will not be listed in the Exchange) are issued by the Company (whether by way of bonus issue, rights issue, conversion of debt securities, exercise of any rights or options or otherwise), the Company shall notify the Depository of the name of the allottees or entitled persons and all such other information as may be required by the Depository (whether under the Rules of the Depository, by virtue of the Central Depositories Act or otherwise) to enable the Depository to make the appropriate entries in the securities accounts of the relevant allottees or entitled persons and the Company shall deliver the appropriate share certificates or jumbo certificates registered in the name of the Depository or its nominee company in respect of such shares, to the Depository;
 - (b) The Company shall make application for quotation of such shares and allot all such shares and despatch notices of allotment to the allottees or entitled person in the manner, within the time period prescribed and in accordance with the Applicable Laws; and
 - (c) No share certificates will be issued to all such allottees or entitled persons.

Notwithstanding the above, the Company may issue jumbo certificates in respect of shares or securities in favour of the Depository as may be directed by the Securities Commission or the Depository pending the crediting of shares or securities into the securities account of the person entitled to such shares or securities or as may be prescribed by the Central Depositories Act and the Rules of Bursa Depository PROVIDED ALWAYS that every such certificate to be issued in the name of the Depository or its nominee company in respect of the Deposited Security shall be issued under the Share Seal or Seal in such form as the Board shall from time to time prescribe and shall bear signatures or facsimile signatures of at least one Director and shall be countersigned by the Secretary or by a second Director or by some other person appointed by the Board, and shall specify the number and class of shares or securities to which it relates and the amounts paid thereon.

Company No.5067*M

- (2) Where certificates for any shares other than the Deposited Security are required to be issued, the certificates shall be issued under the Share Seal or Seal and in accordance with this Constitution and the Applicable Laws with such signatures affixed by means of some method or system of mechanical signature.
24. (1) Subject to the Applicable Laws, if any share certificate or jumbo certificate issued pursuant to this Constitution in respect of the Deposited Security shall be defaced, worn out, destroyed, lost or stolen, it may be renewed on such evidence being produced and a letter of indemnity (if required) being given by the Depository or its nominee company.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of the Act, if any share certificate for the shares other than the Deposited Security shall be defaced, worn out, destroyed, lost or stolen, it may be renewed on such evidence being produced and a letter of indemnity (if required) being given by the Member, transferee, person entitled, purchaser or on behalf of its/their client(s) as the Board shall require and (in case of defacement or wearing out) on delivery up of the old certificate, and in any case on payment of such sum not exceeding Ringgit Malaysia ten (RM10.00) but in any event not exceeding Ringgit Malaysia fifty (RM50.00). In the case of destruction, loss or theft a Member or person entitled to whom such renewed certificate is given shall also bear the loss and pay to the Company all expenses incidental to the investigations by the Company of the evidence of such destruction, loss or theft.
- (3) Share certificates (if any) in respect of any preference share which have been converted into ordinary share of the Company shall be deemed to have been cancelled upon conversion of such preference share into ordinary share.

LIENCompany's lien on shares

25. The Company's lien on shares and dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares, shall be restricted to unpaid calls and instalments upon the specific shares in respect of which such moneys are due and unpaid, and to such amounts as the Company may be called upon by law to pay and has paid in respect of the shares of the Member or deceased Member, but the Board may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article.

Lien may be enforced by sale of shares

26. The Company may sell, in such manner as the Board thinks fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exist is presently payable and until the expiration of fourteen (14) days from a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the privilege or lien as is presently payable has been given to the Member or the person entitled thereto by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the Member.

Company No.5067*MDirectors may effect transfer

27. To give effect to any such sale the Board may authorise some person to transfer the share sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer and the Board shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall the purchaser's title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the sale and the remedy of the holders of such share or of any person claiming under or through him in respect of any alleged irregularity or invalidity shall be against the Company.

Application of sale proceeds

28. The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the Company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and any residue shall be paid to the person entitled to the share at the date of the sale, subject to a similar lien for sums not presently payable which exists over the shares before the sale.

CALLS ON SHARESDirectors may make calls

29. The Board may from time to time make calls upon the Members in respect of any money unpaid on their shares and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, provided that no call shall be payable at less than thirty (30) days from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call, and each Member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen (14) days' notice specifying the date, time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Board may determine.

When call deemed made

30. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed and may be paid by instalments. No shareholder shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to exercise any privilege as a Member until he shall have paid all calls for the time being due and payable on every share by him together with interest and expenses (if any).

Interest on unpaid calls

31. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest or compensation on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate not exceeding eight per cent (8%) per annum or such other rate as may be allowed under the Applicable Laws and as the Board may determine, but the Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of the interest or compensation in whole or in part.

Sums payable on allotment

32. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share payable on allotment or any fixed date shall for the purposes of this Constitution be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of this Constitution as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if the sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Company No.5067*MDifference in calls

33. The Board may make arrangement, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls or instalments to be paid and the times of payment of such calls or instalments.

Calls may be paid in advance

34. The Board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any Member willing to advance payment all or any part of the money uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and upon all or any part of the money so advanced may (until the same would, but for the advance, become payable) pay interest or return at such rate not exceeding (unless the Company in a meeting of Members shall otherwise direct) eight per cent (8%) per annum as may be agreed upon between the Board and the Member paying the sum in advance unless the company in a general meeting otherwise directs. Such capital paid on shares in advances of calls shall not, whilst carrying interest, confer a right to participate in profits. Except in liquidation, sums paid in advance of calls shall not, until the same would but for such advance have become payable, be treated as paid up on the shares in respect of which they have been paid.

INFORMATION OF SHAREHOLDINGCompany may give notice

35. (1) The Company may by notice in writing require any Member within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice:
- (a) to inform the Company whether he holds any voting shares in the Company as beneficial owner or as trustee or nominee; and
 - (b) if he holds the voting shares as trustee or nominee to indicate so far as he can the persons for whom he holds the voting shares by name and by other particulars sufficient to enable those persons to be identified and the nature of their interest.
- (2) Where the Company is informed in pursuance of a notice given to any person under sub-article (1) hereof or under this sub-article that any other person has an interest in any of the voting shares in the Company, the Company may by notice in writing require that other person within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice:
- (a) to inform the Company whether he holds that interest as beneficial owner or as trustee or nominee; and
 - (b) if he holds the interest as trustee or nominee, to indicate so far as he can the persons for whom he holds such interest by name and by other particulars sufficient to enable them to be identified and the nature of their interest.

Member to inform Company

- (3) The Company may by notice in writing require a Member to inform the Company within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice, whether any of the voting rights carried by any voting shares in the Company held by him are the subject of an agreement or arrangement under which another person is entitled to control his exercise of those rights and if so, to give particulars of the agreement or arrangement and the parties to such agreement or arrangement.

Company No.5067*M*TRANSFER OF SHARES*Transfer of Securities

36. (1) The transfer of securities by the Company to the Depository and from the Depository to the Company shall be in accordance with the Applicable Laws.
- (2) The transfer of shares of the Company being Deposited Security shall be by way of book entry by the Depository in accordance with the Rules of the Depository and, notwithstanding Sections 105, 106 and 110 of the Act, but subject to subsection 148(2) of the Act and any exemption that may be made from compliance with subsection 148(1) of the Act, the Company shall be precluded from registering and effecting any transfer of the Deposited Security.
- (3) (a) Subject to the restrictions of this Constitution, all shares other than Deposited Security shall be transferable but every transfer shall be in writing in the usual common form pursuant to the Act or in such other forms as the Board shall from time to time approve, and shall be submitted to the Office of the Company or its agent accompanied by the certificate of the unlisted shares to be transferred and such other evidence (if any) as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.
- (b) The instrument of transfer of any such shares shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members in respect thereof.
- (c) The Board may refuse to register a transfer of such share in the Company to any person of whom they do not approve, and they may also refuse to register a transfer of any unlisted share in the Company on which the Company has lien by passing a resolution to refuse such registration of transfer within thirty (30) days from the receipt of the instrument of transfer. The resolution shall set out in full the reasons for refusing the registration and notice including the reasons thereof shall be sent to the transferor and transferee within seven (7) days of the said resolution being passed.
- (d) The Company or its agent shall be entitled to charge a fee not exceeding Ringgit Malaysia ten (RM10.00) on the registration of every transfer in respect of the shares other than the Deposited Securities.
- (e) Subject to the Applicable Laws, the transfer books and register of the shares may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine, provided always that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty (30) days in the aggregate in any calendar year.

Company No.5067*M*TRANSMISSION OF SHARES*Death of Member

37. Subject to the Applicable Laws, in the case of the death of a Member, the executors or administrators of the deceased shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased from any liability in respect of any shares which had been held by him.

Share of deceased or bankrupt Member

38. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Board or the Depository and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, but the Depository shall in either case have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in case of a transfer of the share by that Member before his death or bankruptcy. Provided always that where the share is a Deposited Security, subject to the Rules of the Depository, a transfer of the share may be carried out by the person becoming so entitled.

Notice of election

39. If the person so becoming entitled elects to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects provided that where the share is a Deposited Security and the person becoming entitled elects to have the share transferred to him, the aforesaid notice must be served by him on the Depository. If he elects to have another person registered he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the share. All limitations, restrictions and provisions of this Constitution relating to the rights to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the Member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were signed by that Member.

Person entitled to receive dividends

40. Where the registered holder of any share dies or becomes bankrupt his personal representative or the assignee of his estate, as the case may be, shall, upon the production of such evidence as may from time to time be properly required by the Board and/or the Depository for Deposited Securities and upon registration as a Member, be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages and to the same rights (whether in relation to meetings of Members or to voting or otherwise) as the registered holder would have been entitled to if he had not died or become bankrupt; and where two (2) or more persons are jointly entitled to any share in consequence of the death of the registered holder for the purpose of this Constitution, only one holder will be recognised by the Depository for the share.

Company No.5067*MTransmission of securities

41. Where:

- (a) the securities of the Company are listed on another stock exchange; and
- (b) the Company is exempted from compliance with Section 14 of the Central Depositories Act or Section 29 of the Securities Industry (Central Depositories) (Amendment) Act 1998, as the case may be, under the Rules of the Depository in respect of such securities, the Company shall upon request of a securities holder, permit a transmission of securities held by such securities holder from the register of holders maintained by the registrar of the Company in the jurisdiction of the other stock exchange, to the register of holders maintained by the registrar of the Company in Malaysia and vice versa provided that there shall be no change in the ownership of such securities.

FORFEITURE OF SHARESNotice requiring payment

42. If a Member fails to pay the whole or any part of any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remain unpaid, serve a notice on him or on the person entitled to the share by transmission requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with interest or compensation at such rate as prescribed in the notice as the Board may determine and any expenses that may have accrued by reason of such non payment.

Particulars in earlier notice

43. The notice shall name a further day (not being less than fourteen (14) days from the date of the notice) on or before which and the place where the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non- payment at or before the time and at the place appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

Forfeiture

44. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. And such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture. A notice of forfeiture shall be sent to the Member within fourteen (14) days of the date of forfeiture.

The Board may cancel forfeiture

45. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Board thinks fit, and, at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Board thinks fit.

Company No.5067*MLiability of Member in respect of forfeited shares

46. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all money which, at the date of forfeiture, was payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares (together with interest or compensation at the rate of eight per cent (8%) per annum or such other rate as may be allowed under the Applicable Laws and determined by the Board to be calculated from the date of forfeiture on the money for the time being unpaid if the Board thinks fit to enforce payment of such interest), but his liability shall cease if and when the Company receives payment in full of all such money in respect of the shares.

Evidence of forfeiture

47. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.

Procedure for shares forfeited

48. The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for a forfeited share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and he shall be registered as the Member and shall not have his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share. Subject to any lien for sums not presently payable, if any, any residue of the proceeds of sale of shares which are forfeited and sold or disposed of, after the satisfaction of the unpaid calls or instalments payable at fixed times and accrued interest and expenses, shall be paid to the person entitled to the shares immediately before the forfeiture thereof or his executors, administrators or assigns or as he directs.
49. The provisions of this Constitution as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duty made and notified.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCKConversion to be at meeting of Members

50. The Company may by ordinary resolution passed at a meeting of Members convert any paid up shares into stock and reconvert any stock into paid up shares of any number.

Transfer of stock

51. The stockholders may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner and subject to the same in this Constitution as the transfer of shares from which the stock arose might, before the conversion have been transferred or be transferred in the closest manner as the circumstances allow; but the Board may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of that minimum.

Company No.5067*MParticipation of stockholders

52. The stockholders shall, according to the amount of the stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages with regard to dividends, voting at meetings of Members and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such right, privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding-up) shall be conferred by any such aliquot part of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that right, privilege or advantage.

Definition

53. Such of the Articles of the Company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

ISSUE OF WARRANTSPower to issue warrants

54. The Board may, subject to the provisions of this Constitution and the Applicable Laws and to the provisions of any resolution of the Company, create, issue and/or grant options including warrants in respect of shares of the Company entitling the holder thereof to subscribe for shares in the Company upon such terms as the Board may think fit and proper and otherwise dispose the warrants to such persons at such times and on such terms as it thinks fit and proper.

INCREASE OF CAPITALPower to increase capital

55. Subject to the Applicable Laws, the Company may from time to time, whether all the shares for the time being issued shall have been fully called up or not, by ordinary resolution increase its share capital, such new capital to be of such amount and to be divided into shares of such respective amounts and to carry such rights or to be subject to such conditions or restrictions in regard to dividend, return of capital or otherwise as the Company by the resolution authorising such increase directs.

Waiver of convening meeting of Members

56. Notwithstanding Article 12 above, but subject always to Applicable Laws, the Company may apply to the relevant authorities including but not limited to the Exchange or any other exchange upon which the Company's shares may be listed and quoted, to waive the convening of meetings of Members to obtain Members' approval for further issues of shares (other than bonus or right issues) where in accordance with the provisions of Section 76 of the Act there is still in effect a resolution approving the issuance of shares by the Company.

Ranking of new shares

57. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered as part of the original share capital of the Company, and shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transaction, forfeiture and otherwise as the original share capital.

Company No.5067*M*ALTERATION OF CAPITALPower to alter capital

58. The Company may by ordinary resolution:
- (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital, the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each subdivided share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the subdivided share is derived;
 - (b) subdivide its shares or any of the shares, whatever is in the subdivision, the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each subdivided share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the subdivided share is derived; and
 - (c) subject to the provisions of this Constitution and the Act, convert and/or re-classify any class of shares into any other class of shares.

Power to reduce capital

59. The Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital in any manner permitted or authorised under and in compliance with the Applicable Laws.

MEETINGS OF MEMBERSAnnual general meetings

60. An annual general meeting of the Company shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the Act. All meetings of Members other than the annual general meetings shall be called general meetings or meetings of Members. All annual general meetings shall be held at such time and place(s) as the Board shall determine. Every notice of an annual general meeting shall be in accordance with this Constitution and the Applicable Laws and shall specify the meeting as such and every meeting convened for passing a special resolution shall state the intention to propose such resolution as a special resolution.

Requisition of meetings

61. In addition to the annual general meeting, the Directors may whenever they so decide convene a meeting of Members. Further, a meeting of Members (not being an annual general meeting) shall also be convened on such requisition as is referred to in Section 311 of the Act, or if the Company makes default in convening a meeting in compliance with a requisition received pursuant to Section 311, a meeting may be convened by the requisitionists themselves in the manner provided in Section 313 of the Act.

Notice of meeting

62. (1) Subject to the Applicable Laws, this Constitution and any agreements for shorter notice by Members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, the notices convening meetings of Members shall be given at least fourteen (14) days before the meeting or at least twenty-one (21) days before the meeting where any special resolution is proposed or where it is an annual general meeting.

Company No.5067*M

- (2) The notice shall specify the place, date and time of all meetings of Members and the general nature of the business of the meeting, and shall be given in the manner as provided for in this Constitution and subject to Applicable Laws to all Members, Directors and Auditors. In the case of special business, the notice shall be accompanied by a statement regarding the effect of any proposed resolution in respect of such special business.
- (3) The accidental omission to give such notice to, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any person shall not invalidate the proceedings of any resolution passed at any such meeting.
- (4) At least fourteen (14) days' notice or twenty-one (21) days' notice in the case where any special resolution is proposed or where it is the annual general meeting, of every such meeting must be given by advertisement in at least one (1) nationally circulated Bahasa Malaysia or English daily newspaper and in writing to every Exchange upon which the shares of the Company are for the time being listed.

Record of Depositors

63. The Company shall inform the Depository of the dates of meeting of Members and shall in written request made in duplicate in the prescribed form and in accordance with the Rules, request the Depository as at the latest date which is reasonably practicable which shall in any event be not less than three (3) market days prior to and not including the date of the meeting of Members, to issue the Record of Depositors (hereinafter referred to as the "General Meeting Record of Depositors"). The General Meeting Record of Depositors shall be the final record of all Depositors who shall be deemed to be the registered holders of ordinary shares of the Company eligible to be present and vote at such meeting.
64. Subject to the Securities Industry (Central Depositories) (Foreign Ownership) Regulations 1996 (where applicable), a Depositor shall not be regarded as a Member entitled to attend any general meeting and to speak and vote thereat unless his name appears in the General Meeting Record of Depositors.

Business of meeting

65. Subject always to the provisions of the Act, no business shall be transacted at a meeting of Members except business of which notice has been given in the notice convening the meetings. An annual general meeting shall be held to transact the business, in accordance with the Act, which include the laying of the audited financial statements and the reports of the Directors and Auditors, the election of Directors in place of those retiring and the appointment and the fixing of the Directors' fees, and the appointment and fixing of the remunerations of the Auditors in accordance with the Act.
66. In every notice calling a meeting of Members, there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a Member entitled to attend and vote may appoint not more than two (2) proxies to attend, participate, speak and vote instead of him, and where a Member appoints more than one (1) proxy, he shall specify the proportion of his shareholding to be represented by each proxy respectively.

Omission to give notice

67. The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate any resolution passed or the proceedings at any such meeting.

Company No.5067*MVenues and technology for meetings of Members

68. The Company may hold a meeting of Members at more than one venue using any technology or method that enables all Members to participate and to exercise the Members' rights to speak and vote at the meeting. The main venue of the meeting shall be in Malaysia and the chairperson shall be present at that main venue of the meeting.

Meetings of Members at more than one venue using any other technology

69. Subject to Applicable Laws, any member may validly participate in a meeting of Members through any technology or method used by the Company that enables all Members to participate and to exercise the Members' rights to speak and vote at the meeting. A person so participating shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall accordingly be counted in a quorum and be entitled to vote. All business transacted in the manner as specified in this Constitution and for the purpose of this Article shall be deemed to be validly and effectively transacted at a meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT MEETINGS OF MEMBERSNo business unless quorum present

70. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of Members unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise provided, two (2) Members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum. For the purposes of this Constitution, "Member" includes a person attending as a proxy or representing a corporation which is a Member. Where one (1) or more proxies or representatives are appointed by a Member, the proxies or representatives shall be counted as one (1) Member.

Adjournment

71. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week (or if that day be a public holiday, then to the next business day following that public holiday) at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine.

Chairperson

72. The Chairman (if any), or in his absence, a deputy Chairman (if any), shall preside as the chairperson at every meeting of Members. If there is no such Chairman or deputy Chairman or if the Chairman or deputy Chairman is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to act, or if one Director only is present he shall preside as the chairperson if willing to act. If no Director is present, or if each of the Directors present declines to take the chair, the Members present and entitled to vote on a poll shall elect one of their numbers to be chairperson. The election of the chairperson shall be by a show of hands. However, a proxy shall not be eligible for election as chairperson of the meeting.

Company No.5067*MAdjournment with consent of meeting

73. Subject to the Applicable Laws, the chairperson may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

Polls

74. (1) At a meeting of Members, a resolution put to the vote of such meeting of Members shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or upon the declaration of the results of the show of hands) demanded:
- (a) by the chairperson;
 - (b) by at least two (2) Members present in person or by proxy;
 - (c) by a Member or Members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than ten per centum (10%) of the total voting rights of all Members having the right to attend and vote on the resolution; or
 - (d) by a Member or Members holding shares in the Company conferring a right to attend and vote on the resolution, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than ten per centum (10%) of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.
- (2) Unless a poll is so demanded a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolutions. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

How a poll is to be taken

75. (1) A poll shall be taken in such manner and either forthwith or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the chairperson directs, and the result of the poll shall be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was taken, but a poll demanded on the election of chairperson or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. The Company shall appoint at least one (1) scrutineer for the purposes of a poll in accordance with the Applicable Laws and may, in addition to the powers of adjourning meetings contained in this Constitution, adjourn the meeting to some place and time fixed for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll.
- (2) The poll may be conducted manually using voting slips or electronically using various forms of electronic voting devices. Such votes shall be counted by the poll administrator, and verified by the scrutineer(s), as may be appointed by the Company for the purpose of determining the outcome of the resolution(s) to be decided on poll.

Company No.5067*MEquality of votes

76. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or a poll, the chairperson of the meeting of Members at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is taken or demanded shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

Evidence of passing of resolutions

77. The chairperson of the meeting declares whether or not the resolutions put to vote at a meeting of Members are carried, based on the poll results, which show the total number of votes cast on the poll (together with the percentage) in favour of and against the resolution, as confirmed by the scrutineer.

Voting

78. Subject to this Constitution and to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any classes of shares, at meetings of Members or classes of Members each Member entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy or by attorney and on a show of hands every person who is a Member or representative or proxy of a Member shall have one (1) vote, and on a poll every Member present in person or by proxy or by attorney or other duly authorised representative shall have one (1) vote for each share he holds.

Appointment of proxies

79. (1) A Member is entitled to appoint another person as his proxy to exercise all or any of his rights to attend, participate, speak and vote instead of him at the meeting of Members and that such proxy need not be a Member.
- (2) A Member shall not be entitled to appoint more than two (2) proxies to attend and vote at the same meeting. Where a Member appoints two (2) proxies, the appointment shall be invalid unless he specifies the proportion of his shareholdings to be represented by each proxy.
- (3) Where a Member of the Company is an Exempt Authorised Nominee which holds ordinary shares in the Company for multiple beneficial owners in one securities account (omnibus account), there is no limit to the number of proxies which the exempt authorised nominee may appoint in respect of each omnibus account it holds.

Shares of different monetary denominations

80. Where the capital of the Company consists of shares of different denominations, voting rights shall be prescribed in such a manner that a unit of capital in each class, when reduced to a common denominator, shall carry the same voting power when such right is exercisable.

Voice of Member of unsound mind

81. A Member who is of unsound mind or whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in anyway under the law relating to mental disorder may vote by his committee or by such other person as properly as the management of his estate, and any such committee or other person may vote by proxy or attorney and any person called under the transmission Article to transfer any shares may vote at any meeting of Members in respect thereof in the same manner as if he was the registered holder of such shares provided that forty-eight (48) hours at least before the time of holding the meeting or adjourned meeting as the case may be at which he proposes to vote, he shall satisfy the Directors of his right to transfer such shares unless the Directors shall have previously admitted his right to vote at such meeting in respect thereof.

Member barred from voting while share unpaid

82. A Member shall be entitled to be present and to vote on any question either personally or otherwise as a proxy or attorney at any meeting of Members (including annual general meetings) or upon a poll or be reckoned in the quorum in respect of any share or shares upon which all calls due to the Company have been paid.
83. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objections made in due time shall be referred to the chairperson of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

Instrument appointing proxy to be in writing

84. (1) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the Member or his attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the Member is a corporation, shall either be executed under its common seal or under the hand of two (2) authorised officers, one of whom shall be a director, or in the case of a sole director, by that director in the presence of a witness who attests the signature or of its attorney duly authorised in writing. The instrument appointing a proxy authorises the proxy(ies) to demand or join in demanding a poll.
- (2) Without derogation to the power of the chairperson of the meeting to decide on the validity of objections with regard to the qualification of any voter raised at meetings or adjourned meetings, which decisions shall be final and conclusive:
- (a) if a proxy has instructions, his obligation is to vote in accordance with the terms of the instructions;
 - (b) if a proxy is without instructions as to how to vote, he can vote in his discretion;
 - (c) if a proxy votes contrary to the instructions of the Member, it would not affect the validity of the meeting as this is a matter between the proxy holder and the Member;
 - (d) if a proxy votes contrary to the instructions of the Member appearing on the proxy form, the votes may be treated as "spoilt votes"; and
 - (e) if a Member presents himself at a meeting after having appointed a proxy or proxies and declares an intention to attend and vote personally, he must identify the proxy/proxies who is/are accordingly obviated, as well as the resolution(s) he intends to vote on personally, failing which he shall be deemed to have obviated the necessity of his proxy or, as the case may be, all his proxies from being used at all, in which event his proxy or, as the case may be, all his proxies shall not be permitted to attend and vote at the meeting.

Company No.5067*MForm of proxy

85. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in such form as the Board may from time to time prescribe or approve, subject to the Applicable Laws.

Delivery of instruments appointing proxies

86. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the Office or at such other place within Malaysia or in such other manner as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid or in such other period(s) as may be provided or permitted under the Applicable Laws and stipulated in the form of proxy or in the notice of meetings.

Validity of vote given under proxy

87. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or attorney shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or unsoundness of mind of the principal or revocation of the instrument or of the authority under which the instrument was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the instrument is given, if no intimation in writing of such death, unsoundness of mind, revocation or transfer as aforesaid has been received by the Company at the Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the instrument is used.

Termination of proxy

88. The termination of proxy shall be in accordance with the Applicable Laws.

Corporate representative

89. Subject to Section 333 of the Act, any corporation which is a Member, may by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such person(s) as it thinks fit to act as its representative(s) either at a particular meeting of Members or at all meetings of Members or of any class of Members, and a person so authorised shall in accordance with his authority and until his authority is revoked by the corporations be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual Member.

DIRECTORS APPOINTMENT, REMOVAL, ETCNumber of Directors

90. All Directors of the Company shall be natural persons. Until otherwise determined by a meeting of Members the number of Directors shall not be less than two (2) or more than fifteen (15). The Directors shall have power at any time, and from time to time, to appoint any person to be a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing Directors, but so that the total number of Directors shall not at any time exceed the maximum number fixed by or in accordance with this Constitution. Any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting and shall then be eligible for reappointment but shall not be taken into account in determining the retirement of Directors by rotation at such meeting.

Company No.5067*MRetirement of Directors

91. An election of the Directors shall take place each year. All Directors shall retire from office once at least in each three (3) years but shall be eligible for re-election. At each annual general meeting, one-third (1/3) of the Directors for the time being, or if their number is not a multiple of three (3), then the number nearest to one-third (1/3), shall retire from office.

Selection of Directors to retire

92. The Directors to retire in each year shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election, but as between persons who became directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.

Notice of candidate as a Director

93. No person not being a retiring director shall be eligible for elections to the office of director at any meeting of Members unless a Member intending to propose him has, at least eleven (11) clear days before the meeting, left at the Office of the Company a notice in writing duly signed by the nominee, giving his consent to the nomination and signifying his candidature for the office, or the intention, of such Member to propose him for election, provided that in the case of a person recommended by the Board for election, nine (9) clear days' notice only shall be necessary, and notice of each and every candidature for election to the Board shall be served on the registered holders of shares at least seven (7) days prior to the meeting at which the election is to take place.

Retiring Directors deemed to be reappointed

94. The Company at the meeting at which a Director so retires may fill the vacated office by electing a person thereto. Unless at that meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill the vacated office or a resolution for the re-election of the Director retiring at that meeting is put to the meeting and lost or some other person is elected a Director in place of the retiring Director, the retiring Director shall, if offering himself for re-election and not being disqualified under the Act from holding office as a Director, be deemed to have been re-elected.

Motion for appointment of Directors

95. At any meeting of Members at which more than one (1) Director is to be elected, each candidate shall be the subject of a separate motion and vote unless a motion for the appointment of two (2) or more persons as Directors by a single resolution shall have first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it.

Increase or reduction of number of Directors

96. The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution passed at a meeting of Members increase or reduce the number of Directors to be appointed to the Board, and may also determine in what rotation the increased or reduced number is to retire from office.

Company No.5067*MRemoval of Directors

97. The Company may by ordinary resolution of which special notice is given in accordance with Section 206 of the Act, remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office and may if thought fit, by ordinary resolution appoint another Director in his stead. The person so appointed shall be treated for the purpose of determining the time in which he or any other director is to retire, as if he had become a director on the day on which the person in whose place he is appointed was last appointed as a director.

Power to add Directors

98. The Board shall have power at any time, and from time to time, to appoint any person to be a Director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing Board. Any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting, and shall then be eligible for re-election but shall not be taken into account in determining the Directors who are to retire by rotation at that meeting.

Directors' qualification

99. The shareholding qualification for Directors may be fixed by the Company in a meeting of Members and until so fixed no shareholding qualification for Directors shall be required. All Directors shall be entitled to receive notice of and to attend all meeting of Members.

DIRECTORS' REMUNERATIONDirectors' remuneration

100. The fees of the Directors and any benefits payable to the Directors including any compensation for loss of employment of a Director shall be subject to shareholders' approval at a meeting of Members and shall (unless such resolution otherwise provided) be divisible among the Directors as they may agree, or failing agreement, equally, except that any Director who shall hold office for part only of the period in respect of which such fees are payable shall be entitled only to rank in such division for a proportion of the fees related to the period during which the Director has held office PROVIDED ALWAYS that:
- (a) fees payable to non-executive Directors shall be by a fixed sum, and not by a commission on or percentage of profits or turnover;
 - (b) salaries payable to executive Directors may not include a commission on or percentage of turnover;
 - (c) fees and benefits payable to Directors shall be subject to annual shareholders' approval at a meeting of Members; and
 - (d) any fee paid to an alternate Director shall be agreed upon between himself and the Director nominating him and shall be deducted from the remuneration of the Director.

Company No.5067*MReimbursement of Expenses

101. The Directors shall be entitled to be reimbursed for all travelling or such reasonable expenses as may be incurred in attending and returning from meetings of the Board or of any committee of the Directors or meetings of Members or otherwise howsoever in or about the business of the Company in the course of the performance of their duties as Directors.

DISQUALIFICATION OF DIRECTORSWhere offices of Directors deemed vacant

102. The office of Director shall become vacant if he:
- (a) becomes of unsound mind or a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt within any way under the Mental Health Act 2011 or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally;
 - (b) becomes disqualified from being a Director under Section 198 or 199 of the Act;
 - (c) ceases to be a Director or is prohibited by virtue of the Act or the Applicable Laws;
 - (d) resigns his office by notice in writing under his hand left at the registered address for the time being of the Company;
 - (e) is removed from his office of Director in accordance with the Act or the provisions herein;
 - (f) dies; or
 - (g) has retired in accordance with the Act or under this Constitution and is not re-elected.

POWER AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORSBusiness of Company to be managed by the Board

103. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Board who may pay all expenses incurred in promoting and registering the Company, and exercise all such powers of the Company as are not, by the Applicable Laws or by this Constitution, required to be exercised by the Company in meeting of Members, subject, nevertheless, to any provision of this Constitution and to the provisions of the Applicable Laws being not inconsistent with the provisions of this Constitution or the provisions of the Applicable Laws as may be prescribed by the Company in a meeting of Members but no regulations made by the Company in meeting of Members shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if that regulations had not been made.
104. The Board shall not without the prior approval of the Company in a meeting of Members:

108. The Board may from time to time by power of attorney appoint any corporation, firm or person or body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Board to be the attorney/attorneys of the Company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under this Constitution) and for such period and subject to such conditions as it may think fit, and any such power of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any such attorney as the Board may think fit and may also authorise any such attorney to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretion vested in him.

Company No.5067*MSigning of cheques etc.

109. All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments and all receipts for money paid to the Company shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed, as the case may be, in such manner as the Directors from time to time by resolution determine.
110. A Director shall at all times exercise his powers in accordance with the Act, for a proper purpose, in good faith and in the best interest of the Company and act honestly and use reasonable diligence in the discharge of the duties of his office and shall not make use of any information acquired by virtue of his position to gain directly or indirectly an improper advantage for himself or for any other person or to cause detriment to the Company.
111. Every Director shall give notice to the Company of such events and matters relating to himself as may be necessary or expedient to enable the Company and its officer to comply with the requirements of the Act.

Director may hold other office

112. Subject always to Sections 221 and 228 of the Act a Director may hold any other office or place of profit under the Company (other than the office of Auditor) in conjunction with his office of Director for such period and on such terms (as to remuneration and otherwise) as the Directors may determine and no Director or intending Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company either with regard to his tenure of any such other office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise nor shall any such contract, or any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director is in any way interested, be liable to be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such Director holding that office or of the fiduciary relationship thereby established.

Directors may act in his professional capacity

113. Any Director may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company, and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a Director provided that nothing herein contained shall authorise a Director or his firm to act as auditors of the Company.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARDMeeting of Board

114. The Third Schedule of the Act shall not apply to the Company, except so far as the same are repeated or contained in this Constitution. The Board may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as it thinks fit. Any Director may at any time and the Secretary shall on the requisition of a Director summon a meeting of the Board. Directors may participate in a meeting of the Board by means of a conference telephone or similar electronic telecommunicating equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other and participate throughout the duration of the communication between the Directors and participation in a meeting pursuant to this provision shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Company No.5067*MNotice of meetings of the Board

115. It shall not be necessary to give any Director or alternate Director, who does not have an address in Malaysia, registered with the Company, notice of a meeting of the Board by hand or by post. Any Director may waive notice of any meeting either prospectively or retrospectively. Unless otherwise determined by the Board from time to time, notice of all meetings of the Board shall include the date, time and place of meeting and the matters to be discussed and shall be given to all Directors and their alternates, who have registered address in Malaysia by hand, post, facsimile or in electronic form. Except in the case of an emergency, reasonable notice of every meeting of the Board shall be given in writing and the notice of each meeting of the Board shall be served in the manner referred to Articles 157 and 158 and the said Articles 157 and 158 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the service of notice of meetings of the Board of Directors as it applies to the services of notices on Members of the Company. The notice of each meeting of the Board shall be deemed to be served on a Director upon delivery if delivered by hand, or immediately if sent by facsimile or other form of electronic communications or if sent by post, on the day on which a properly stamped letter containing the notice is posted.

Quorum of meeting of the Board

116. (1) The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Board shall be two (2). A meeting of the Board for the time being at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions by or under this Constitution vested in or exercisable by the Board generally.
- (2) In the event no quorum is present after one half of an hour of the time appointed for the said meeting then such meeting shall be postponed for a period of two (2) weeks to a date falling on the same day and at the same time and at the same place where for the purpose of the meeting any two (2) Directors shall be a quorum.

Chairman of the Board

117. The Directors may elect a Chairman of their meetings and determine the period for which he is to hold office but if no such Chairman is elected, or if at any meeting the Chairman is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Directors present may choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.

Chairman to have casting vote

118. Subject to this Constitution any question arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes and a determination by a majority of Directors, shall for all purposes be deemed a determination of the Board. In case of an equality of votes the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote except where only two (2) Directors are competent to vote on the question at issue.

Number of Directors below minimum

119. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but if and so long as their number is reduced below the minimum number fixed by or pursuant to this Constitution as the necessary quorum of Directors, the continuing Director or Directors may, except in an emergency, act only for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to that minimum number or of summoning a meeting of Members, but for no other purpose.

Company No.5067*MDisclosure of interest

120. Every Director shall comply with the provisions of the Act in connection with the disclosure of his shareholding and interest in the Company and his interest in any contract or proposed contract with the Company and in connection with the disclosure of the fact and the nature, character and extent of any office or possession of any property whereby whether directly or indirectly duties or interests might be created in conflict with his duty or interest as a Director of the Company.

Restriction on voting

121. Subject to the Applicable Laws, a Director shall not participate in any discussion or vote in respect of any contract or proposed contract or arrangement in which he has directly or indirectly an interest (and if he shall do so his vote shall not be counted) nor shall his vote be counted for the purpose of any resolution regarding the same.

Interested Director may be counted for quorum

122. A Director notwithstanding his interest may be counted in the quorum present at any meeting where he or any other Director is appointed to hold any office or place of profit under the Company or where the Board resolves to exercise any of the rights of the Company (whether by the exercise of voting rights or otherwise) to appoint or concur in the appointment of a Director to hold any office or place of profit under any other company, or where any decision is taken upon any contract or arrangement in which he is in any way interested.

Power to vote

123. Director may vote in respect of:

- (a) an arrangement for giving the Director himself or any other Director any security or indemnity in respect of money lent by him to or obligations undertaken by him for the benefit of the Company; or
- (b) any arrangement for the giving by the Company of any security to a third party in respect of a debt or obligation of the Company for which the Director himself or any other Director has assumed responsibility in whole or in part under a guarantee or indemnity or by deposit of a security.

Directors may become directors of other corporation

124. A Director of the Company may be or become a director or other officer or otherwise interested in any corporation promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as shareholder or otherwise of any corporation, which is directly or indirectly interested in the Company as shareholder or otherwise and no such Director shall be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefit received by him as a director or officer of, or from his interest in, such corporation unless the Company otherwise directs at the time of his appointment. The Directors may exercise the voting power conferred by the shares or other interest in any such corporation held or owned by the Company, or exercisable by them as Directors of such other corporation in such manner and in all respects as they think fit (including the exercise thereof in favour of any resolution appointing themselves or any of them as Directors or other officers of such corporation) and any Directors may vote in favour of the exercise of such voting rights in manner aforesaid, notwithstanding that he may be or is about to be appointed a director or other officer of such corporation and as such is or may become interested in the exercise of such voting rights in the manner aforesaid.

Company No.5067*M*ALTERNATE DIRECTOR*Alternate Directors

125. (a) Each Director shall have power from time to time to nominate any person to act as his alternate provided that (i) such person is not a Director of the Company, (ii) such person does not act as an alternate for more than one Director of the Company, (iii) the appointment is approved by a majority of the other members of the Board, and (iv) any fee paid by the Company to an alternate Director shall be deducted from that Director's remuneration. The Director may at his discretion remove such alternate Director and appoint another in his place, if any.
- (b) An alternate Director shall (except as regards power to appoint an alternate Director and remuneration) be subject in all respects to the terms and conditions existing with reference to the other Directors, and shall be entitled to receive notices of all meetings of the Directors and to attend, speak and vote at any such meetings at which his appointor is not present.
- (c) Any appointment or removal of an alternate Director may be made in writing and sent by hand, post, facsimile or in any other form or manner, electronic or otherwise, as approved by the Board.
- (d) A Director shall not be liable for the acts and defaults of any alternate Director appointed by him.
- (e) An alternate Director shall not be taken into account in reckoning the minimum or maximum number of Directors allowed for the time being but he shall be counted for the purpose of reckoning whether a quorum is present at any meeting of the Board attended by him at which he is entitled to vote.

MANAGING DIRECTORSManaging Director

126. The Board may from time to time appoint any one or more of their body to be Managing Director(s) or by such other designation as the Board deems fit on such terms as it thinks fit and subject to the terms of any agreement entered into, may revoke any such appointment. The Board may vest in such Managing Director(s) as may be appointed by it such of the powers hereby vested in the Directors generally as it may think fit, but subject thereto such Managing Director(s) shall be subject to the control of the Board.

Remuneration of Managing Director

127. The remuneration of a Managing Director or Managing Directors shall be fixed by the Board and may be by way of salary or commission or participation in profits or otherwise or by any or all of these modes but shall not include a commission on or percentage of turnover.

Company No.5067*MRetirement, resignation and removal of Managing Director

128. A Managing Director shall be subject to retirement by rotation and shall be taken into account in determining the rotation or retirement of Directors, and he shall, subject to provisions of any contract between him and the Company, be subject to the same provisions as to resignation and removal as the other Directors of the Company and if he ceases to hold the office of Director from any cause, he shall ipso facto and immediately cease to be a Managing Director.

COMMITTEES OF THE BOARDPower of the Board to appoint committees

129. The Board may establish any committees, local boards or agencies comprising one or more persons for managing any of the affairs of the Company, either in Malaysia or elsewhere, and may lay down, vary or annul such rules and regulations as it may think fit for the conduct of the business thereof, and may appoint any person or persons to be the member and members of any such committees or local board or agency and may fix their remuneration and may delegate to any such committee or local board or agency any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in the Directors, with power to sub-delegate, and may authorise the member or members of any such committee or local board or agency or any of them, to fill any vacancies, therein, and to act notwithstanding vacancies and any such appointment or delegation may be made upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the Board may think fit, and the Directors may remove any person so appointed, and may annul or vary any such delegation, but no persons dealing in good faith and without notice of any such annulment or variation shall be affected thereby.

Meeting of Committees

130. Subject to any rules and regulations made pursuant to this Constitution, a committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper and questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present (if more than one) and in the case of an equality of votes the chairperson shall have a second or casting vote except where only two (2) Directors are competent to vote on the question at issue.

Chairperson of Committees

131. A committee may elect a chairperson of its meetings. If no such chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the chairperson is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present may choose one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.

VALIDATION OF ACTS OF DIRECTORSDirectors' acts to be valid

132. All acts done by any meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board or by any person acting as a Director shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such Director or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director.

Company No.5067*M*CIRCULAR RESOLUTIONS*Resolution in Writing

133. A resolution in writing signed or assented by a majority of Directors who may at the time be present in Malaysia being not less than sufficient to form a quorum, shall be valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board duly called and constituted provided that where a Director is not so present but his alternate who is so present, then such resolution must also be signed by such alternate. All such resolution shall be described as "Directors' Circular Resolution" or "Directors' Resolution in Writing" and shall be forwarded or otherwise delivered to the Secretary without delay and shall be recorded by him in the Company's minute book. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form each signed or assented by one or more Directors. The expressions "in writing" or "signed" or "assented" include approval by legible confirmed transmission by facsimile or electronic mail or any technology purporting to include a signature and/or electronic or digital signature or electronic vote of the Director or such other forms of electronic communications as may be determined or approved by the Board.

ELECTRONIC CONFERENCING FOR THE BOARD OR ITS COMMITTEETeleconferencing

134. A meeting of the Board or a committee appointed by the Board may be held by means of telephone, videoconference or telephone conference or other telecommunication facilities, which permits all persons participating in the meeting to communicate with each other. A person so participating shall be deemed to be present in person at such meeting and unless otherwise provided in this Constitution, shall be counted in a quorum and be entitled to vote.

AUTHENTICATION OF DOCUMENTSAuthentication of documents

135. Any Director or the Secretary or any person appointed by the Directors for the purpose shall have power to authenticate any documents effecting the constitution of the Company and any resolution passed by the Company or the Board and any books, records, documents and accounts relating to the business of the Company, and to certify copies thereof or extracts there from as true copies or extracts.

Conclusive evidence of resolutions and extract of minute of meetings

136. A document purporting to be a copy of a resolution of the Board or an extract from the minutes of a meeting of the Board which is certified as such in accordance with the provisions of Article 135 shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with the Company upon the faith thereof that such resolution has been duly passed or, as the case may be, that such extract is a true and accurate record of a duly constituted meeting of the Board.

Company No.5067*M*MINUTES AND REGISTER*Minutes to be entered

137. The Board shall cause minutes to be duly entered in books provided for the purpose:

- (a) of all appointments of officers;
- (b) of the names of all the Directors present at each meeting of the Board and of any committee of the Board and of the Company in meeting of Members;
- (c) of all resolutions and proceedings of meetings of Members and of meetings of the Board and committees of the Board; and
- (d) of all orders made by the Board and any committee of the Board.

Such minutes shall be signed by the chairperson of the meeting at which the proceedings were held or by the chairperson of the next succeeding meetings.

Director to comply with the Act

138. The Company shall in accordance with the provisions of the Act keep at the Office a register containing such particulars with respect to the Directors and managers of the Company as are required by the Act, and shall from time to time notify the Registrar of Companies under the Act of any change in such register and of the date of change in the manner prescribed by the Act.

Minutes kept at registered office

139. The books containing the minutes of proceedings of any meetings of Members shall be kept by the Company at the Office of the Company and shall be open to the inspection of any Member without charge.

Registers to be kept

140. The Company shall also keep at the Company's Office, registers which shall be open to the inspection of any Member without charge and to any other person on payment of not exceeding Ringgit Malaysia ten (RM10.00) for each inspection of all such matters required to be so registered under the Act, and in particular:

- (b) a register of the particulars of each of the Directors shareholding and interests as required under Section 59 of the Act.

SECRETARYSecretary

141. The Secretary or joint Secretaries shall in accordance with the Act be appointed by the Board for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as it thinks fit.

Company No.5067*M*SEAL*Authority for use of Seal

142. (1) The Board shall provide for the safe custody of the Seal, which shall only be used pursuant to a resolution of the Board, or a committee of the Board authorised to use the Seal. The Board may from time to time (subject to the provisions of this Constitution in relation to share and debenture stock certificates and debentures) make such regulations as it thinks fit determining the persons and the number of such persons in whose presence the Seal or Share Seal shall be affixed and, until otherwise so determined, as to which no person dealing with the Company shall be concerned to see and enquire and subject always to the provisions of this Constitution, the Seal shall be affixed in the presence of at least two (2) authorised officers, one of whom shall be a Director and another counter-signatory shall be either the Secretary or a second Director or some other person appointed by the Board for that purpose, who shall sign every instrument to which the Seal is affixed.
- (2) The Company may exercise the powers conferred by Section 62 of the Act with regard to having an official Seal for use abroad, such powers shall be vested in the Board.
- (3) The Company may also have a Share Seal pursuant to Section 63 of the Act.

ACCOUNTSBook of account open to inspection by the Board

143. The Board and managers of the Company shall cause to be kept and shall distribute copies of financial statements and other documents as required by the Act and shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the accounting and other records of the Company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of Members not being Directors and no Member (not being a Director) shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or paper of the Company except as conferred by statute or authorised by the Board or by the Company in meeting of Members except as conferred by statute or authorised by the Board or by the Company in meeting of Members. Subject always to Section 245(5) and (6) of the Act the books of account or records of operations shall be kept at the Company's Office or at such other place as the Board thinks fit and shall always be open to inspection by the Board.

Preparation and issuance of audited financial statements and Directors' report

144. The Board shall cause to be prepared, sent to every Member and laid before the Company in its annual general meeting the audited financial statements and Directors' report in accordance with the Act. The interval between the close of a financial year of the Company and the issue of the annual audited financial statements, the Directors' and Auditors' reports shall not exceed four (4) months. A copy of each such documents shall not less than twenty-one (21) days before the date of the meeting (or such shorter period, as may be agreed by all Members entitled to attend and vote at the annual general meeting) be sent to every Member of and to every holder of debentures of the Company under the provisions of the Act or of this Constitution. The requisite number of copies of each such document as may be required by the Exchange upon which the Company's shares may be listed shall at the same time be likewise sent to each Exchange Provided that this Article shall not require a copy of these documents to be sent to any person of whose address the Company is not aware but any Member to whom a copy of these documents has not been sent shall be entitled to receive a copy free of charge on application at the Company's Office.

Company No.5067*M*AUDIT

145. The Auditors shall be appointed for each financial year by ordinary resolution at the annual general meeting of the Company in accordance with Section 271 of the Act.

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVESDistribution of dividends out of profit

146. The Board may authorise a distribution of dividends to the Members out of profits of the Company available if the Company is solvent but no dividend shall exceed the amount as authorised by the Board.

Setting aside profits

147. The Board may, before authorising any distribution of dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Company such sums as it thinks proper as reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Board, be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied, and pending such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments as the Board may from time to time think fit and may from time to time vary or realise such investments and dispose of all or any part thereof for the benefit of the Company, may divide any reserve fund into such special funds as it thinks fit, with all power to employ the assets constituting the reserve fund in the business of the Company and without being bound, keep the same separate from the other assets. The Directors may also without placing the same to reserve carry forward any profits which it may think prudent not to divide.
148. Subject to the rights of any person entitled to shares with special rights as to dividend, all dividend shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares in respect whereof the dividend is paid, but no amount paid or credited as paid on a share in advance of call shall be treated for the purposes of this Article as paid on the share. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date that share shall rank for dividend accordingly.
149. The Board may deduct from any dividend payable to any Member all sums of money, if any, presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the Company.

Dividend due may be retained until registration

150. The Board may retain the dividend payable upon shares in respect of which any person is under the provisions as to the transmission of shares hereinbefore contained entitled to become a Member, or which any person is under those provisions entitled to transfer, until such person shall become a Member in respect of such shares or shall transfer the same.

Unclaimed dividends may be invested

151. Subject to the Unclaimed Moneys Act 1965, all dividends unclaimed for one (1) year after having been declared may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Board for the benefit of the Company until claimed or paid pursuant to the Unclaimed Moneys Act 1965.

Company No.5067*MDistribution of specific assets

152. The Board in authorising a distribution of dividends may direct payments of such dividends wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid-up shares, debentures or debenture stock of any other company or in any or more of such ways and where any difficulty arises in regard to payment of such distribution, the Board may settle the same as it thinks expedient, and fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the Board.

Mode of Payment

153. Any dividend, interest or other money payable, in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the holder who is named on the Record of Depositors or Register of Members or paid via electronic transfer of remittance to the Account or to such person and to such address or such Account as the holder may in writing direct. Every such cheque or warrant or electronic transfer remittance shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent, and the payment of any such cheque or warrant or via electronic transfer of remittance shall operate as a good discharge to the Company in respect of the dividend represented thereby, notwithstanding that it may subsequently appear that the same has been stolen or that the endorsement thereon or the instruction for the electronic transfer of remittance has been forged. Every such cheque or warrant or electronic transfer of remittance shall be sent at the risk of the person entitled to the money thereby represented.

For the purposes of this Article, "Account" shall mean a bank account maintained at a Malaysia bank which is participant of the Malaysian Electronic Payment System (MEPS) (or such other system as may from time to time be established in substitution thereof or in addition thereto, by whatever name so called) or such other bank account as may be acceptable to the Company and notified in writing to the Members. Particulars of the Account shall be provided by the holder who is named on the Record of Depositors or Register of Members electing for payment via electronic transfer of remittance, to the Company, in such manner as shall be determined by the Company.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITSBonus Issue

154. The Company in a meeting of Members may upon the recommendation of the Board resolve that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution and accordingly that such sum be set free for distribution amongst the Members who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions or conditions that the same be not paid in cash but be applied either in or towards paying any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such Members respectively or paying up in full shares or debentures of the Company to be allotted and distributed credited as fully paid up to and amongst such Members in the proportion aforesaid, or partly in the one way and partly in the other, and the Board shall give effect to such resolution.

Company No.5067*MPower for application of undivided profits

155. Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed and the Board shall make all appropriations of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares if any, and generally shall do all acts things required to give effect thereto, with full power to the Board to make such provision by the issue of fractional part of a share or by payment in cash or otherwise as it thinks fit for the case of shares becoming distributable in fractions, and also to authorise any person to enter on behalf of all Members entitled thereto into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any further shares to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation or (as the case may require) for the payment up by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions to the profits resolved to be capitalised or the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares, and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such Members.

LANGUAGETranslation

156. Where any financial statements minute books or other records required to be kept by the Act are not kept in the Malay or English Language, the Board shall cause a true translation of such financial statements, minute books and other records to be made from time to time at intervals of not more than seven (7) days and shall cause such translation to be kept with the original financial statements, minute books and other records as are required to be kept by the Act.

NOTICEService of notices and/or documents

157. Any notice or documents required to be sent to Members may be given by the Company or the Secretary to any Member:
- (a) in hard copy, either personally or sent by post to him in a prepaid letter addressed to him at his last known address; or
 - (b) in electronic form, and sent by the following electronic means:
 - (i) transmitting to his last known electronic mail address;
 - (ii) publishing the notice or document on the Company's website provided that a notification of the publication of the notice or document on the website via hard copy or electronic mail [or short messaging service] has been given in accordance with Section 320 of the Act and the Listing Requirements; or
 - (iii) using any other electronic platform maintained by the Company or third parties that can host the information in a secure manner for access by Members provided that a notification of the publication or making available of the notice or document on the electronic platform via hard copy or electronic mail [or short messaging service] has been given to them accordingly.

Company No.5067*MWhen service effected

158. Any notice or document shall be deemed to be served by the Company to a Member:

- (a) where the notice or document is sent in hard copy if by post:
 - (i) on the day the prepaid letter, envelope or wrapper containing such notice or documents is posted. In providing service by post, a letter from the Secretary certifying that the letter, envelope or wrapper containing the notice or document was so addressed and posted to the Member shall be sufficient to prove that the letter, envelope or wrapper was so addressed and posted; or
- (b) where the notice or document is sent by electronic means:
 - (i) via electronic mail, at the time of transmission to a Member's electronic mail address pursuant to Article 157(b)(i), provided that the Company has record of the electronic mail being sent and that no written notification of delivery failure is received by the Company;
 - (ii) via publication on the Company's website, on the date the notice or document is first made available on the Company's website, provided that the notification on the publication of notice or document on website has been given pursuant to Article 157(b)(ii); or
 - (iii) via electronic platform maintained by the Company or third parties, on the date the notice or document is first made available thereon provided the notification on the publication or making available of the notice or document on the relevant electronic platform has been given pursuant to Article 157(b)(iii).

In the event that service of a notice or document pursuant to this Article is unsuccessful, the Company must, within two (2) market days from discovery of delivery failure, make alternative arrangements for service by serving the notice or document in hard copy in accordance with Article 157(a) hereof.

Last known address for service

159. A Member's address, electronic mail address and any other contact details, provided to the Depository shall be deemed as the last known address or electronic mail address or contact details provided by the Member to the Company for purposes of communication including but not limited to service of notices and/or documents to the Member.

Notice in case of death or bankruptcy

160. A notice and/or document required to be sent to Members may be given by the Company to the persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member by sending it through representatives of the deceased or assignee of the bankrupt, or by any like description, at his last known address in any manner in which the same might have been if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred. Every person who, by operation of law, transfer transmission or other means whatsoever, shall become entitled to any share, shall be bound by every notice and/or document in respect of such share, which prior to his name and address being entered in the Register of Members or Record of Depositors as the registered holder of such share, shall have been duly given to the person from whom he derives the title to such share.

Company No.5067*MWho may receive notice of meeting of Members

161. (1) Notice of every meeting of Members shall be given in any manner hereinbefore mentioned to:
- (a) every Member at his last known address;
 - (b) every person entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member who, but for his death or bankruptcy, would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting;
 - (c) the Auditors of the Company;
 - (d) the Directors of the Company; and
 - (e) every Exchange in which the Company is listed.
- (2) Any notice and/or document required by a court of law or otherwise required or allowed to be given by the Company to the Members or any of them, and not expressly provided for by this Constitution or which cannot for any reason be served in the manner referred to in this Constitution shall be sufficiently given if given by advertisement, and any notice and/or document required to be or which may be given by advertisement, shall be deemed to be duly advertised once advertised in a widely circulated newspaper in Malaysia in the national language and/or English language, subject to Applicable Laws.

COMPLIANCECompliance with statutes, regulations and rules

162. The Company shall comply with all Applicable Laws all Applicable Laws, notwithstanding any provisions in this Constitution to the contrary.

WINDING-UPDistribution of assets in specie

163. If the Company is wound up the liquidator may after the payment or satisfaction of all liabilities of the Company including preferred payments under the Act, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company, divide amongst the Members in kind the whole or any part of the assets of the Company (whether they consist of property of the same kind or not) and may for that purpose set such value as he deems fair upon any property to be divided as aforesaid and may determine how the division shall be carried out as between the Members or different classes of Members. The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of any such assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator, with the like sanction, thinks fit but so that no Member shall be compelled to accept any shares or other securities whereon there is any liability.

Company No.5067*M

164. Save that this Article shall be without prejudice to the rights of holders of shares issued upon special terms and conditions the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) If the Company shall be wound up and the assets available for distribution among the Members as such shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid up capital such assets shall be distributed so that as nearly as may be the losses shall be borne by the Members in proportion to the capital paid up, or which ought to have been paid up at the commencement of the winding-up, on the shares held by them respectively; and
